

SUMMER CAMPS

Outdoor Murfreesboro at the Wilderness Station has several fun and exciting outdoor camps every summer for a variety of ages. Registration for Murfreesboro Parks and Recreation camps begins March 1st every year.

Nature Camp, ages 6-8

Catch a crawdad. Hike a trail. Watch a heron. Wander along the riverbank. Touch a snake. Examine an insect. Investigate an animal track. Explore the woods. Plant a native flower. Make a new friend. Play a game. Create a camp craft. Experience nature! Nature Camp is a weeklong camp that meets at the Wilderness Station every day from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. The fee for this camp is $50.00

Wildlife Camp, ages 9-12

Does your child love animals? Do they love the outdoors? Then they will definitely love Wildlife Camp! This camp will allow your child to strengthen their appreciation of Tennessee's native wildlife while also enjoying outdoor sports. They will experience fishing, kayaking, reptile research, hiking, skeet shooting, a birds of prey program, outdoor cooking, and archery. They will enjoy the outdoors in a new way during this camp experience. Wildlife Camp is a weeklong camp that meets at the Wilderness Station every day from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The fee for this camp is $150.

Adventure Camp I, ages 9-12

Adventure Camp II, ages 11-14

High Adventure awaits your child during this camp! They will learn new outdoor skills that will test their courage, make their heart race, make them laugh, and help them to appreciate what the great outdoors has to offer. Climbing, kayaking, ropes courses, zip lines, hiking, and much more. Both of these weeklong camps meet at the Wilderness Station every day and are from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The fee for both of these camps is $150.

Summer Kayak Club, ages 13-18

Hey teens! Looking for a fun summertime activity on the water? How about spending your time and energy on the waterways that are all around us? Every week we embark on a new adventure along the Stones River. Learn kayak paddle strokes, how to read the river, and water safety techniques while meeting new friends. Kayak Club meets every Thursday from 2:00-5:00 p.m. beginning in May and going through June. The fee for this camp is $100.
